

Fate

Editor The Chronicle—Sir: Every day one reads and hears incredible globaloney, globlarney and globe-huey about this war and the awful things Germans, Italians, Japanese will do if they win the war, and the wonderful things U.S. will do if the United Nations win the war.

Where do mortals get this silly stuff about what they will do long before the cat is out of the bag? No. It is impossible to change the future. Start the ball rolling and cause and effect carries it to its certain end, and all your wishful thinking will not change that end by one iota. OLE J. SNEIDE.

San Francisco.